

Leonard J. Kauffman

June 27, 1947 - January 2, 2025

Leonard J Kauffman, 77, a cherished father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend passed away on 1/2/25 at Jersey Shore University Medical Center. He was born in Chester, Pa. to the late Alex Kauffman and Gertrude Rosenthal Kauffman. As a teen, he moved to Ocean Twp. NJ along with his parents and siblings.

After graduating high school, he became involved in his family's businesses. For the last twenty-five years he and his son-in-law, Michael partnered a local HVAC and Sheet Metal Company. Leonard was a lover of animals and vintage cars. In his free time, he enjoyed spending time with his family and many friends. He exemplified an astonishing work ethic and generously gave his time, sage advice and witty humor to all who knew and loved him.

Leonard was predeceased by his parents, sister Renee Naim, and brother Stephen Kauffman. He is survived by his daughter, Sandra Williams, her husband Michael Williams and grandchildren, Gregory and Amanda. His sister, Brona Cohen, her three daughters and grandchildren. Leonard is also survived by many nieces, nephews and their children.

A celebration of Leonard's life will take place at a date to be determined.
