*I fondly remember Mr. Shucavage coaching our little league team with my father. I was friends with his son Michael. I would cut through the woods from Barbara Lane to get to his house. Remember when there were woods to play in? Anyway, recalling an incident with our team, the White Sox, an opposing player yelled over commenting on the "WS" stitched on our caps. "Do you know what "WS" stands for", he said? "It stands for We Suck ". Well Mr. S took offense. Thinking Quickly he turned around to our team and said, "WS stands for ,We're superior!" I'm not sure if we won that game, but we had a well coached playoff team, in a league where everyone didn't get a trophy. My father passed a few years ago and is also interned in the General Doyle Cemetery. "Any nation that does not honor its heroes will not long endure".- Abraham Lincoln.
Thanks for all your areas of service Mr Shucavage.*
