“ *There is no question that you were an amazing man Pops! Just to say hello and shake your hand was all anyone needed to know that they had someone special in their midst! It was almost a challenge that you presented, shaking someone's hand, because you would always win that one! Thank you for being such a wonderful grandfather to all of us and such a terrific husband to Grams. The love you showed her and the joy you brought to her will always be remembered and cherished by all of us! We will never forget your laugh and all the wonderful comments you made, especially the ones that made your wife go "Leo!", those were always the best! Your plaid Christmas outfit will never be forgotten and neither will your smile, your heart, your intelligence and your spirit! We love you so much Pops and will miss you each and every day! Make sure to keep an eye on us from up above and know that we love you!!###imported-begin##Mo &
