

Lorraine Orr

June 29, 1928 - September 10, 2024

Lori Orr, Educator, Wife, Mother, 96

Lori Orr, a beloved teacher, devoted wife, and loving mother, passed away peacefully at the age of 96 on September 10, surrounded by her family. Lori dedicated her life to educating young minds, teaching third grade at Eatontown Public Schools and leaving an indelible mark on a generation of students.

Born with a passion for learning, Lori graduated from Glassboro State College, now known as Rowan University. Her commitment to education was evident in her long and impactful career.

In her retirement, Lori embraced her love for travel, visiting Europe countless times. She had a particular fondness for England and Scotland, where she created many cherished memories. Lori also enjoyed the beach, known for her signature dark tan, and took great pride in her creative fingernail designs, having them done just days before her passing.

Lori found joy in the beauty of Seabrook Village her home for over of 25 years. She spent countless hours by its picturesque pond and at the bench out front that was dedicated to her late husband James L. Orr.

Her life was greatly enriched by her loving marriage of over 60 years to “Jimmy,” who was also a dedicated educator, serving for decades as an assistant superintendent in the Neptune Township school system.

Lori is survived by her daughter Pam Schaible, son-in-law Anthony Schaible, her son Scott Orr, and her grandchildren: Nick Schaible, Mary Kate Schaible, Olivia Orr, and Justine Orr. Her legacy of love, education, and creativity will continue to inspire those who knew her.

A service to celebrate Lori's life will be held on Friday, September 20, from 10 a.m. to noon, at Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shaft Road, Tinton Falls. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations in her name to the Fulfill Food Bank (fulfillnj.org) of Neptune.

Lori Orr's life was a testament to the power of education, the joy of travel, and the beauty of family. She will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ Mrs. Orr was my teacher in Measowbrook for 1st 2nd and 3rd grade. This was the 1st year they tried the 3 years with the same teacher.
So happy to have been able to have her as a teacher. Mrs. Orr was truly a diamond in the rough and truly brought out confidence in her students.
She will never be forgotten. RIP Mrs. Orr
