

Margaret Zinn

October 15, 1920 - April 14, 2009

Margaret Zinn, 88, of Seabrook Village, Tinton Falls, died Tuesday, April 14, at Jersey Shore University Medical Center, Neptune. Born in Bronx, N.Y., She was a longtime resident of Staten Island before moving to Seabrook Village in 2002. Margaret graduated with honors and the distinguished Service Award from Tottenville High School, Staten Island in 1939. Margaret was a retired Food Service Director. She began her career in Bickfords and worked for many well known N.Y.C. restaurant companies. She managed the English Pub at the 1964 World's Fair in Queens, N.Y.

Margaret enjoyed retired life by attending Senior Centers on Staten Island. She participated in a multitude of senior club activities. She was an enthusiastic and hard working volunteer for many organizations. She generously shared her time and talents with others. Margaret thoroughly enjoyed her life at Seabrook Village. She loved the ocean, pool and was a talented swimmer. She enjoyed water skiing, camping, travel and all outdoor activities. She was an avid gardener, loved to cook, entertain, and skilled at many crafts. She was well loved and cherished by her family, and enjoyed being in the company of her numerous nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews. She will be dearly missed.

Margaret is survived by three sisters; Hilda Simons of Florida, Betty Zinn of Jackson Heights, N.Y. and Lisalotta Pruiniger of Staten Island; a sister in law, Flora Zinn of Seabrook Village and fifteen nieces and nephews.

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 17. 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Bongarzone Funeral Home
2400 Shafto Road
Tinton Falls, NJ