

Margherita Inghilleri

November 10, 1938 - February 20, 2024

Margherita Inghilleri entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, February 20, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Margherita was born on November 10, 1938, in Partinico Sicily, daughter to Maria and Vito. She came to live in the United States in 1968 to be reunited with her family.

She was a seamstress by trade. In her later years she worked as a lunch aide for the Red Bank Charter school out of her love for children up until her retirement. She was a gentle and kind soul who enjoyed having her entire family together each holiday and birthday.

She is survived by her loving husband of 70 years, Antonino Inghilleri, her children: Josephine Noden, Benedetta La Rosa (Antonino) Vito Inghilleri (Lauren) and predeceased daughter Maria Gentile (Ralph). She also leaves behind her loving sister and brothers, as well as many grandchildren: Brian, Sean, Kyle, Colleen, Stephanie, Marie, Anthony, Christopher, Geno, and Sophia, and great grandchildren: Colton and Cael. She will be dearly missed by her family and fondly remembered.
