“ This woman right here is a saint... They do not make them like her anymore... She took me in while I was battling my demons... Always made sure I was properly fed and she was the best roommate I ever had in my life... She always believed in me and gave me new clothes bc I grew up poor... She was always giving and loved her Sunday church service... I should have seen her more in the end in a nursing home she was forced to be in but I couldn't bc it broke my heart.... I offered to take her many times but was rejected bc "she was too sick and needs too much help..." she is now an angel in the sky and one day soon we will fly together laughing... I will never forget what fierce competitor in rummy 500 and dominos... Her most favorite times were watching the nj nets play on tv and shopping on hsn and qvc... She looked foward to my daily chore list and cooking a fastening dinner... I love and miss u and thank u for always being there for me...

“ I have known Marie most of my life. She was a compassionate strong woman. She survived serious illnesses and overcame far more than her share of hardships. But never did she allow her personal problems dampen her devotion or her humanity. She loved people and we loved her. She always greeted others with warmth and respect. If you look up the words strong woman her picture should be there . The world has lost one of its noble persons. I'm sure she putting a good word for us in heaven. It was an honor and privilege to have known her. May she Rest In Peace now and always!

“ Marie had a wonderfully loving soul. Marie had a large hand in raising myself and my two brothers. Marie was selfless and always willing to put the grandchildren's needs before her own. We could always count on her for a warm Italian meal or simply a listening ear at anytime of the day or night. She made a positive impact on many peoples' lives and will be missed. We love you grandma. See you in heaven.

All My Love,
Danielle
