To our dear mother and wife to our dear father: While she had a hard life at least she was loved and got to enjoy spending lots of time with our father. “ I met Ms. Gahary in Perl Harbor when her son Dave was in a terrible motorcycle accident. Dave and I served aboard the same nuclear submarine. She was extremely graceful given the terrible circumstance. Rest In Peace. s/ Don Carey

“ I will always remember when I use to come over to visit Matt and you and George would always let us visit you guys. I remember this one time when we got home from the beach and we had to eat dinner but Matt didn't want to, so we rang your doorbell, you let us in and gave us chips and snacks and let us watch tv and hide from Dave and Simona. I miss you and I'm so grateful for all of the memories I have with you

“ There was no one like Aunt Marie. She was one of a kind. One of the most generous and loving aunts I was so blessed to have. Me and Aunt Marie had a special connection because me and Dash, her beloved son, were born on the same day, same year - so we were almost like twins. She always referred to me as her second daughter. I loved her so much. My most favorite memories of growing up is being with Aunt Marie & Uncle George and my awesome cousins in that huge beautiful house in Upper Saddle River. It was truly The Best of Times!!!! Just being all together and laughing was something that I will always treasure. Alister my bulldog loved playing with you. He's been sad since you left. Will miss you Aunt Marie 💕 Rest In Peace my beautiful Aunt 💜 Give Dash a big hug and a kiss for me. You're together again! Sleep with the Angels because you truly are one. Love & Miss you always 😭

“ Marie was my mother's sister. My mom had 3 sisters (and 2 brothers), but I always felt closest to Aunt Marie. I know she and Uncle George felt close to me as well, though I hadn't seen them in recent years. As a young woman and as a preteen, I spent time during summers and many random weekends at her house. It was always bustling, with 5 children lots of friends coming and going, and many, many animals. I always enjoyed the time I spent with you, my Uncle, and my cousins. I always will look back on those memories fondly. Rest In Peace, Aunt Marie. You will be missed. Love, Tammy
