MARILYN MANNING AQUINO, passed away peacefully and entered eternal life on December 12, 2023 surrounded by family and friends, in Shrewsbury, NJ. She was predeceased in life by her father, the late Sea Bright Mayor Andrew B. Manning and her mother, Marjorie Marks Schulz, R.N., of Rumson.

Marilyn had a fierce sense of loyalty to her family and friends. She was always faithfully there when they needed her, without fail. Her family was her greatest joy in life. We will forever miss her, but particularly her relentless spunk and fire which was one of her greatest strengths. Passionate about horses her entire life, Marilyn was an accomplished equestrian. She divided her time between her family, her horses, and her work as a distinguished legal secretary. She loved to travel, especially to Hawaii where she lived for a time in the late 1970's.

“ So saddened to learn of Marilyn's passing. She was a wonderful, intelligent and vibrant person. She was far too young but I'm sure that her legacy will live forever in the hearts of those that knew and loved her. My condolences and prayers go out to her family.
