“ Mark and I went to a concert at Watkins Glenn in the early 70's to see Emerson Lake & Palmer and others. Mark had just bought a brand new 6 cylinder imported German sports car and He looked at me on the way to PA. and asked; "So; you want to see how fast it can go?" I wasn't so sure I recall at the time but I didn't disagree so he gunned it and before we knew it we were going 120 MPH! I was afraid and he didn't take it any faster there after. He always looked out for me. From his brother Brian.

“ Mark was our neighbor for 32 years. he was famous for wearing a Devils costume on Halloween every year to give out candy. He was a little league coach and loved doing it year after year. He was a great friend and will be missed. His family seems like our family.
