“Marci and I became friends in 1989 at Emmanuel Christian School. We would pray together.. We prayed for each of the students and staff by name.. There is something about praying together that creates a supernatural bond. We spent many hours talking about the Lord and His Word.

One of the things that was special about Marci was her wonderful gift for making christian crafts. To this day an angel she made for me is displayed in my room.

I will greatly miss her!

Joe, Heather, Matt, Daniel, and Rachel I know that she will keep on loving you and watching your spiritual walk with the Lord from Heaven.

Rob and I will be praying for you as you walk through this hard place. Although we know that she has passed on to a better place, there will still be that empty place at the table that no one else could fill.

Love,

Wendy and Rob Veronesi

“ God gave my brothers, sister and I a really really truly amazing mother to guide us through as we grew up. All of us at one point wanted to quit school but she saw us all through with her prayers that we could succeed and we did. She was a prayer Warrior and Faithful Servant of the Lord. Child of the Upmost high is now rejoicing in His Kingdom. Could never fathom death of anyone close, especially my mother. Your flesh will decompose and become with the earth as your Spirit lives on and we will keep your loving memory alive. Love you mom and can't wait till we meet again at those pearly white gates, oh beautiful and angelic angel. Love you always and forever,
Your raybay

“ Marcie and I were at CCFW packing gift boxes for the college students. In fact, we were in the home of Jean and Al Braca. Marcie and I laughed and laughed. We kept putting extra things in our boxes!!!!!!!!!!!!!! And then would crack up laughing. We wanted our students to be extra blessed!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Marcie was one of the most Godly women I have ever known. She was a true blessing in my life. I learned so much from her. I will miss her. But she is with our Lord now and I am sure she is still laughing!!!!!!!!!!!!!! You will be missed my dear sister.

“ I have so many wonderful Memories of Marcie. We met at Blue Mountain so many years ago and the thing that initially struck me about her was her faith and her sense of humor. Her husband, Joe, was so funny and she would just laugh along with the rest of us. Those early years we laughed a lot! Marcy began to praise dance years ago and I remember she swung her flag and broke a ceiling light at the mountain!. Another time she came to visit me and my family for a week end. We were talking and my dog just climbed on top of her and snuggled in for a nap. That dog knew a good woman when her saw one. Marcie just loved that dog.

“ Marcie was the best friend anyone could ask for and I was one of the lucky ones. She was filled with the Spirit of the Lord and the gift of sharing it with others and also of herself. When my husband passed three years ago, she was at my side taking care of my needs. She always had a smile on her face and did not worry about anything that was not God's will. I will never forget you and I know that you are with our Lord now and I'm sure you got the best room in the house. I am also sure that when you came in his Presence, his words to you were WELL DONE GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. I love you always and know I will see you again when it is my time, my FRIEND AND MENTOR. To the Dinen family,

Marcie was such a wonderful person, always smiling and bringing joy wherever she went. I am the secretary of Brokers 3 Realtors and Marcie use to work for us and did accounting. She was such an inspiration and delight and always had a kind word for everyone she came in contact with. We had a lot of talks and laughs and she was a beautiful person inside and out.

With love and heartfelt sympathy....Joan Madison
