

Nicholas Osenenko

April 10, 1940 - January 26, 2016

Nicholas Osenenko of Red Bank, NJ passed away on January 26, 2016. He was born and raised in Bayonne, NJ before relocating to the shore area where he was a resident for more than 40 years. He attended Newark College of Engineering and worked for Esso in Linden before joining the U.S. Army. After his service, he returned to Esso and for several years worked on the Alaskan Pipeline. He was a multi-talented individual and worked in many professions. His work resume reads like a traveler and took him to many places. Upon his return to New Jersey his entrepreneurial skills were put to good use. He had an antique shop in Belmar called Nick's Knacks and later, with his late wife Shirley, had a specialty shop in Red Bank dealing in antique jewelry, collectables and furniture.

He was pre-deceased by his wife Shirley Glick (nee Schwartz), his parents Genevieve and Nicholas Osenenko, and his brother Pvt. Vincent J.

Osenenko. He is survived by his step-children Wendy Baggot and Jonathan Glick along with their children Zachary Baggot and Jennifer Glick. He is also survived by his siblings Barbara Chioffi, Karen Resetar, Paula Spadavecchia, Laura Kobelski, Michelle Andreczski, George Osenenko, Frederick Osenenko, Edward Osenenko and Denise Loksa.

Nick will be interred beside his beloved wife Shirley at the Brigadier General William C. Doyle Veteran's Cemetery on Friday, April 15, 2016 at 12:30. No flowers, donations to MCSPCA or Monmouth County Foodbank.

There are no goodbyes for us. Wherever you are, you will always be in my heart. ~Gandhi

Cemetery Details

BG William C. Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery

350 Provinceline Road
Wrightstown, NJ

Tribute Wall

BH

“ Bongarzone Funeral Home lit a candle in memory of Nicholas Osenko ”

Bongarzone Funeral Home - February 15, 2016 at 01:53 PM