

Nicole Samantha Margiloff

April 24, 1997 - April 1, 2023

Nicole Margiloff, 25, of Tinton Falls, passed away on Saturday, April 1, 2023.

She was born in Red Bank. A graduate of Rowan University, Nicole was numbers smart and used her analytical brain to problem solve and shine in her career. She also was very creative and artistic, often painting canvases and making festive outfits with her Cricut. Whether it was tie dying in the street, making her own candles, jewelry or painting ceramics, she loved to show her creativity. Anyone who knew her knows how much she loved shopping and getting a good deal (even if it meant staying on hold with customer service for hours!). Nicole would find deals for anyone who mentioned they were looking for something.

She enjoyed family activities, including playing the Alexa version of Jeopardy during dinnertime and watching Shark Tank. When it came to using and understanding the latest technology, Nicole's older family and friends would go to her for her patient and clear explanation. Always proud of her New England Patriots and fantasy football teams, her sports energy will be missed.

Nicole is predeceased by her grandparents, Rita Marie and Peter Calabro and Robert Margiloff.

She is survived by her parents Nancy and Pete Margiloff and her sister Jennifer Margiloff; grandmother Margery Pecoraro; aunts and uncles Cathy and Bob Cullum, Stephen and Sheryl Calabro, Susan Margiloff, Laura Pecoraro and Donn Karatsanos; cousins Rob Wolf, Kaitlyn and Sean Hughes and Steve Calabro; along with her extended family and friends.

A visitation will be held on Friday, April 7th from 3pm-5pm and 7pm-9pm, at Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shafto Road, Tinton Falls, NJ. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, April 8th at 9:30am at St. Michael's Church in Long Branch. Interment will immediately follow at Mount Olivet Cemetery, 100 Chapel Hill Rd, Red Bank, NJ. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Nicole's name to New Jersey Suicide Prevention Hopeline (<http://www.njhopeline.com>).

The family has requested that everyone go directly to church on Saturday.

“ I just learned of Nicole’s passing and I am sending love and prayers to her family ❤️ I first met Nicole in middle school where we sat with each other at lunch. She would always share her frozen strawberries with me and it’s been my favorite snack since. We would share laughs and always talk about Justin Bieber. She was so giggly and positive. We miss you Nicole!

“ I just found out you passed away, and my heart hurts hearing that. We didn't know each other long, but I know you had confided in me some struggles you were dealing with, and I just hope you are at peace now. It was a pleasure getting to know you for a short time and you had a very kind heart. My thoughts go out to your family

“ I first met Nicole when I started working for Spencers. We instantly became friends. She was the sweetest and most caring person and helped me out so much when I joined the team, sharing all of her knowledge and all of her notes. She was a meticulous note taker! I looked so forward to seeing her at work every day. She talked me into going to paint nights at work and I enjoyed them so much with her. She always had me laughing. She was so crafty and talented. We had such a special friendship and even when she left to pursue a new career, Nicole and I stayed in close contact. My heart is broken. I will never forget all of our talks, texts and meet ups for lunch and dinner. They are memories I will cherish forever. I loved Nicole so much and she will always hold a special place in my heart and I will miss her so much. Sending my love and prayers to her family during this difficult time.

“Remember that I’ll always be there for you to listen, to understand, and to care. Wherever you go, whatever you do, we are forever family”.

This was a quote of a bracelet Nicole had given me for Christmas one year and the words couldn’t be more true. Nicole and I weren’t only blessed to become close friends and sisters through our sorority at Rowan but we were also in the same family tree. Nicole and I shared a similar experience which led us to form this personal connection that grew into a beautiful friendship.

Nicole was always there to listen, give advice, offer support, and validate your feelings. She was someone I could call or text at any point in the day because she was reliable and always made herself available whether it was early in the morning or late at night. She always put 100% into her friendships, planning hangouts, brunch and picnic dates, mini day trips, baking and craft nights, the list goes on. Through her spontaneous nature, I experienced many “firsts” with her because she helped you step out of your comfort zone and try new things which is something I will always be thankful for.

I feel privileged to have known Nicole and although our time got cut short, she will always be my “forever family”. I’ll always hold our memories close to my heart and will miss her sense of humor, boldness, and nurturing personality. My thoughts and prayers are with the Margiloff family during this heartbreaking time.

“ I met Nicole in college when I joined theta phi. Nicole welcomed me with open arms, and her friendship is what made me stay in the organization. Nicole was kind and supportive, and made every small task an adventure. Her laughter and energy made every moment better. I will never forget the memories and time we spent together.

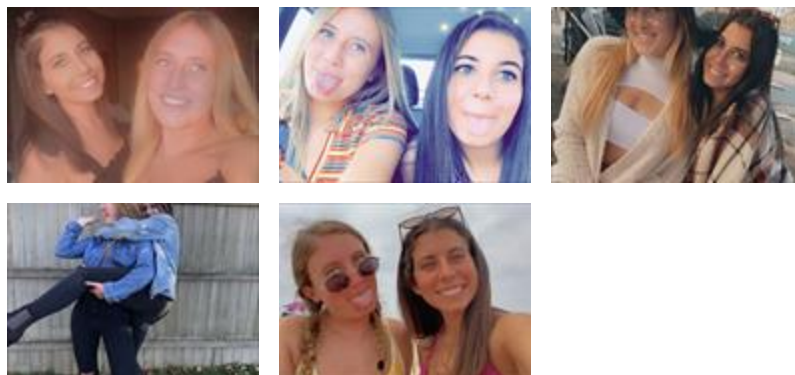

Nicole, Thank you for being a friend to me when I needed one most, you will never be forgotten. My deepest condolences to all of her family and friends.

“ My sincerest condolences go out to the Margiloff Family, you are in my thoughts and prayers. From the moment Nicole and I met, we instantly became inseparable. Our friendship was filled with laughter and smiles, car karaoke sessions, taking spontaneous road trips, and sharing important milestones. Nicole and I traveled to Washington DC and went to the Zoo, we went to Ocean City, Maryland, and Baltimore, Maryland, drove to Easton, PA and went to the Crayola Factory, drove to Columbia, PA and went to the Turkey Hill Experience, did the Gilmore Girls experience in Connecticut, went to the Temple football tailgate, went kayaking in the bay, went to the beach, did many arts and crafts and so much more. These are just some of the many memories I will always cherish and will always be grateful for the wonderful friend she was. We went on many adventures together. She touched the hearts of everyone who came in her life. Rest in peace to a beautiful soul. You will forever be missed❤️

“ I first met Nicole in third grade when I moved to a new school and she was in my class. I didn't know anyone there, but Nicole went out of her way to make me feel welcome and we quickly became close friends. Although we grew apart in more recent years, Nicole was such a huge part of my childhood and teenage years and she truly helped shape me into the person I am today. I will never forget all of the sleepovers we had, the fun adventures we went on, the times we would stay up all night talking about anything and everything. Nicole was such a genuinely kind, cheerful, and caring person who helped me through a lot of tough times and always knew how to make me laugh with her pun-filled sense of humor. She will be so missed. Sending so much love to her family and friends during this incredibly difficult time ❤️

“ Dear Nancy, Pete and Jennifer, I have read all of the memories posted by the many people Nicole touched in life. What a remarkable and beautiful life, how fortunate are those that have known her. Our prayers are with you all.
Today is Good Friday and Christians mourn the death of Jesus. We remember the agony of his mother Mary, agony you share. In the last words of Jesus “behold your mother” he shares the grace and compassion of Mary with the world. We pray you find some comfort.

“ I met Nicole in middle school and we quickly became close friends through high school but sadly grew apart during college. Nicole was such a kind and caring person with a bubbly personality and the punniest sense of humor. I will forever cherish the memories of our planned matching outfit days in highschool, trying to make all sorts of arts and crafts that we learned about from YouTube videos, video chatting for hours, and pulling all nighters to talk about the silliest things. “ How can this be? It was just a few weeks ago you were over the house playing with Kiera and now you're gone. My heart is broken. Such a sweet, caring, outgoing, fun, creative, smart beautiful person. I have so many memories, doing crafts together, hanging out at the pool, building snowmen, bugging you for Cricut machine advice, blowing bubbles with Kiera, you dominating our block's annual Iron Chef competition... the list goes on. There is an empty space on our block that can never be filled in the same way. You were sooo loved and we will forever miss our "Cole" 😭

“ Nicole was one of my closest friends. I met her in college through the sorority and she was known as my saph. I am absolutely crushed by the news of her passing and wish my deepest condolences to her family.

Nicole was my most thoughtful friend. She sent me a care package when my boyfriend broke up with me, she set up activities for us to do together over FaceTime when Covid was bad. She even decorated her car when she met up with me for my birthday or when I graduated college (during Covid). She always put her heart and soul into everything she cared about, including our relationship as friends. She was spontaneous, but yet always made sure everyone always had what they needed and always went above and beyond when planning fun events to do together. I will forever cherish the memories I have made with Nicole and the impact she has made on my life.

“ I am absolutely shocked by this horrible news.. I had the pleasure of meeting Nicole through work when she was hired at CMI. I was assigned to be her mentor. My first impression of her was how sweet and eager she was to learn the new job. We had plenty of weekly calls to discuss work questions but we usually went off on tangents and talked about sports, family, getting sunburnt, among other topics. She was very easy to talk to and could always make me laugh. She was very smart and ambitious as she would work on the problem/task herself before reaching out. I am deeply saddened by this news and am thinking about her and her family/friends at this time. The world lost a sweet soul and she will be greatly missed.. RIP Nicole..

“Nicole taught me that a true friendship isn't measured in years. Instead, it's measured by the impact that friendship has on your life. I met Nicole during her time in Pittsburgh. Nicole's sense of adventure and excitement was contagious. Even though our time together was short we managed to take in so much of what Pittsburgh had to offer together.

Nicole was so creative and crafty. She was always the first to volunteer to make the perfect shirt or sweatshirt for an upcoming event. She didn't care how many times you changed the idea or color. She never complained because she was patient and wanted those around her to be happy.

I'm going to miss her kind soul and bright smile. I'm so thankful to have met Nicole and to have created so many memories. She will truly be missed.

“ I first met Nicole when she was 3 or 4--the cutest and smartest toddler you might imagine. At the time I was engaged to her dear grandfather, the late Bob Margiloff. I remember several Christmases where I witnessed Nicole and Jennifer's joy in receiving the latest American Girl Dolls complete with clothing and accessories. After opening piles of presents, we delighted in Nicole taking charge of organizing the family activities for us. What a livewire and wonderful character she was! When my own granddaughter was around two, she and her mom visited and Nicole again took charge -- my granddaughter was in love. I was so fortunate to watch the girls grow into amazing teens. Nicole was a lovely young woman. The loss of Nicole is a huge tragedy to all of us who knew and loved her. I hope that she is now dancing with her beloved grandpa in heaven.

Thank you for everything you have taught me & for being one of the best friends I've ever had. I don't know what I would do without our adventures & talks, that I will hold close to me for the rest of my life. You left such an imprint on everyone you met & always found a way to get people out of their shell. Anytime you met someone new you welcomed them with open arms. You brought a creativeness out of things & always tried to make things fun by just being you. I will always keep you & everything you've taught me with me forever. I hope you know just how much you meant to everyone & how much we will all miss you. May your memory be eternal & we will always keep your memory alive in the little things we do everyday that are a tribute to you. Until we meet again 💙

“ Nicole was someone I attended school with elementary, middle and high school. When I first came to Rowan as a transfer she completely took me under her wing. My roommate and I would hang at her apartment quite often. She convinced me to go out for recruitment and it was the best decision I could have ever made. She was someone I would talk a lot as she felt like home. She was always willing to give you a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on. Truly an incredible person. One of the best memories I have with her is making chicken nuggets after a late night out. Rest in peace Nicole, thank you for always making me feel loved, welcomed and important.

“ I met Nicole through Jenn in college and for a while, she was just Jenn’s little sister to me. Until one day, she was working at Susan’s desk at the Student Center and I had a bad day. I walked in, looking for Susan to rant to and Nicole was there, she looked at me and said “you look like you hate everyone” and I did. I sat down and we talked for almost an hour about how everyone just sucked that day. Neither of us got any work done but I felt better, Nicole made it better because she just understood and I really felt like she was my friend now.

Nicole’s sass and eye rolls were unmatched but came with the kindest heart. She was happy to deal with my love and hugs and provide me with all of the attention I needed.

When she eventually joined Theta Phi, I couldn’t have been happier. I got to watch her blossom and grow and become a wonderful sister and a better friend to me than I could have ever expected.

I can’t even remember the last time I saw Nicole and honestly, it breaks my heart. I am going to miss her so much but I know she’s already watching over us and making sure we are all taken care of

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Nicole at CMI. As she was the first person at the company to hold the Associate role for our position and I was the second, I was instantly connected to her when getting the job. Nicole’s welcoming presence and willingness to help me made me feel so comfortable right away. Shortly afterwards, I got to meet Nicole in person at a work event in Philly and we instantly clicked. I remember her making group chats with the Team to make sure everyone was included. We made so many memories during that Philly trip that we had talked about to this day.

Nicole eventually became my assigned mentor at work. We would meet every week and I’d ask her questions and we would just talk about life in general. I had never met someone more giving and with a bigger heart than Nicole. She was so determined to help me in every way she could, even if it was a busy day for her or if it was after her hours. I am so grateful to have received such incredible guidance and a friendship from Nicole in my first job, and hope to be half as great as a mentor to others as she was to me. The world would be a better place if everyone had a heart like Nicole. She will be so missed💕

“ There aren’t enough words to explain or describe what an amazing person and friend Nicole was. Aside from her infectious smile and laughter and her way of always knowing what to say, Nicole was was a friend you knew you could always count on.

I met Nicole through our time at Rowan while we were in Theta Phi and although our time in Theta Phi was short she would always come to Rowan and stay over when she was in her last class. This time together is what truly brought us together as we discovered our mutual love for travel, spontaneity and always over packing no matter how long the trip was.

That being said, I will cherish the time we spent when she visited me in London and I got to show her around my home and visit Venice with her. My heart feels heavy knowing we won’t go on more adventures but she will always hold a very special place in my heart and memories.

So much love to all the family and friends that were able to have Nicole in their lives, she will be truly missed ❤️

“ I met Nicole working at AC Moore several years ago. I was always very excited to see her when she returned to work for the season from school. She didn't understand why- at first- this strange person was always so excited to see her but it was because of her infectious smile and endlessly kind nature. She was pure joy to be around. There was a particular day at work when I happened to be having a rough time and Nicole surprised me by buying three different candy bars (because she wasn't sure which one I would like) to cheer me up. We became fast friends and remained friends after the closing of AC Moore. When my son was born - she and Milo developed a special bond and he loved visiting with her. Nicole- I will miss our epic brunches- talking about anything and everything. I will miss planning trips to Europe with you and brainstorming all of the various businesses we could start together. I will miss our trips to Dollar Tree and soaking up your infinite wisdom on ways to save money and DIY. I will miss park picnics and dance classes. One of my favorite memories will always be the day that we applied a sleeve of temporary tattoos to your arm just to see if you would like it. We laughed and made a mess and it was perfect. Your smile and laugh will stay with me forever. Until next time my beautiful friend. ❤️

“ I met Nicole during her 3-week stay in Pittsburgh. We quickly bonded over our love for puns and dad jokes, and would often think of crafty messages to reply to boys with (if you're a boy reading this, yes, we talked about you).

Even though she was a New England sports fan, we Yinzers were proud she wore a Steelers shirt (that she custom tie-dyed herself at 3am the morning of, because of course Nicole would) the very day Tom Brady was in town. She even celebrated when the Steelers won!

What I'll miss most about Nicole was how tender and generous her heart was. There's not many with a heart like hers. She planned her life around anticipating others' needs. Before the Steelers-Bengals game, she made sure we were all adequately fed, had more than enough choices of beverages to choose from, Tylenol to treat any damage of said beverages, and all the hand/foot warmers we would need to beat the chilling temperatures.

Making others happy made her happy. While our time together was way too short, the impact she had on my life will be long-lasting. Every time I go to the Strip District, or see a terrible towel, or see a silly little meme of New Jersey, I'll think of Nicole. I'll also think of her when I pack Tylenol and hand warmers into my stadium-approved bag, just in case someone else needs them.

You'll be forever loved and missed, Nicole 🧡

“ A beautiful soul gone way too soon. My heart is broken. We all grew up together- our Brown Drive family. I remember babysitting Jen & Nicole as little girls. Sending all the love to your family during this devastating time.

“ Nicole was the most amazing sister anyone could ask for. She was always thinking of me whenever she went shopping, sending me photos of anything she thought I would like. We have so many memories of our crafting adventures - from tie dying in the street to making candles in the microwave. And you can't forget painting ceramics for hours (and almost being kicked out for taking too long!) ! The last time I saw Nicole in person, we played Mario Kart for HOURS- ganging up on the “super hard” computers to take them down and dominate the star counts.

She was loved by so so many people, many of whom I just was able to talk to and reminisce with over the last few days. Her mind was so bright & her smile was infectious.

It isn't the same not waking up to tons of TikTok's full of puppies. 💔
I'll love you forever Nicole 💕💕
