

Patricia Canete

December 9, 1951 - September 16, 2021

Patricia E Canete, (December 1951 – September 2021), of Morganville, NJ died on September 16, 2021 at Raritan Bay Hospital in Old Bridge, NJ. She was born in Santiago, Chile and was the daughter of Guillermo O. Canete and Lilian G. Ravano.

She moved to Miami, FL at age 19 where she obtained a degree in Psychology from the University of Miami, later on she obtained an MSW degree from the University of Chicago.

During her career Patricia worked at CentraState HealthCare System as a Mental Health Therapist and worked at the Rutgers University/UCHC/Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center providing psychotherapy to sex offenders at the Avenel, NJ prison.

Patricia was an enthusiastic and outgoing person that enjoyed classical music, learning languages and gourmet food.

She dedicated her life to assisting and supporting her patients, family and friends.

She is survived by her loving siblings Jaime and Ivan Canete.

Patricia will be remembered as a generous and positive person that enjoyed life. Please join us to pray for the peace of her soul.

“ Patri: I can believe it is going to be a year since you departed. I am still in disbelief. I hope your family gets this words because I learned too late to attend any ceremony. I am cherished the mornings' gossips of the day and trying another baked godsend, or parrot talks. We shared so much been from South America! Remembering your eternal smile and mench soul!
