“ Wally, too young, too soon! My brother's best friend and someone I loved as a brother. There's not a time in my life that I don't remember you not being in it. Your infectious laugh, your kind heart and more than an amazing friend to Eric when he needed a friend, and even when he didn't. I can't imagine never seeing your adorable face and amazing smile again. I'm so happy that when we saw each other a few weeks ago all we did was laugh, but that was just you. I love you Wally, my brother you'll always be. You have always been a special part and member of the Dietz family and my life was always brighter with you in it.

*Sending much love and peace to the Davidson family.
Wally was truly a kind, sweet soul. I'm grateful to have known him over so many years. I considered him not only a friend, but family.
I know how much he appreciated learning the framing trade from my Pop because he expressed not only to me, but to him. My Pop was proud of Wally, always willing to give him a days pay if he had the work and thought of him as another son.
My hope is that their souls meet up, enjoy a beer together, , many laughs and that they are at peace.

Wally was a great friend, roommate and person. We shared many memories living together in Florida, Colorado and California. Just as many memories in the Eatontown area as well. I will truly miss you my friend and suffice to say that you are "Gone too Soon"! Found some photos from back in the day. Marty...

“ Woodmere was the greatest place to grow up because of friends like you. I'll always remember shooting pucks in your garage or playing street hockey on the tennis courts at Woodmere. Rest easy my friend!
