“ Way back when, Pete was great to be with around your ranch on Hope Rd. So glad to run in to him a few years later as he cared for the major beach renovations at Imperial House. Quite a character, his own man, and warm as a camp fire! Anita, Cammy, Linda, all his grandkids, I am so sorry for your loss but glad that he is now with your wonderful Mom!

“ When I first started working with Pete after I retired he would always have a turkey drumstick that he would pull out of his pocket and offer me some. I will miss hanging out with Pete. After every oil tank job we would sit at his house, have a cup of tea and bulljive about everything. He always sent me home with a dish of food for my wife and I to share. Rest In Peace my friend.
