The bottom line is, women do not want nor are we asking for men to protect us, we're asking for men to stop being the thing we need protection from. I can't make it any clearer.

“ I worked with Renee and stayed friends with her after we departed ways and sought new opportunities after the first of the year. I will never forget making random sex and the city quotes and Renee being clueless as to what I was talking about, so I logged into my cable app and made her watch every single episode and both movies in our office while we worked. We cleared multiple seasons of Below Deck, Southern Charm and other various shows. She loved my kids like they were her own. We shared so many laughs and when my mother passed in 2020 when we first started working together, she spent hours on the phone with me while I tried to process. She was a great friend that I will never forget. My thoughts are with you, Joan, Tara, and George and all of the family. I hope you all find some comfort in the coming days. Renee will be missed.
