

Richard R. McCallum

September 12, 1945 - September 11, 2021

Richard R. "Dick" McCallum, 75, of Tinton Falls, NJ, passed away peacefully on Saturday, Sept. 11, 2021 at Jersey Shore Medical Center. Richard was born in Jersey City, NJ in 1945 and graduated from St. Michael's High School. After high school, he became a mail carrier in Middletown, NJ, where he worked for 39 years. Richard also coached high school basketball and softball at Mater Dei, St. Rose, Red Bank Catholic, Raritan, and Keansburg, winning two state championships ('98 and '00) as the St. Rose girls basketball head coach. In addition to coaching, he was a long-time NY Giants' season ticket holder and enjoyed being a spectator at his grandchildren's sporting events. Richard is pre-deceased by his wife of 41 years, Diane, and his sisters Barbara Deiter and Patricia Kidney. He is survived by his son Scott McCallum (Beth), daughter Lisa Marcincak (Shawn), and daughter Stacie Haug (Harold); companion Lynne Crescia; sister Judith Heck; and grandchildren Scott and Sophia McCallum, Marc, Chris, and Jake Marcincak, Taylor Patterson, and Harold and Juliet Haug.

Our condolences to Scott, Lisa, Stacy and their families on the loss of your Dad. Both your Mom and Dad were much too young to leave all their family and friends. I worked with your Mom for many years and we knew your Dad through her and the many sporting events we all attended. May they both Rest in Peace together knowing how much they were loved.
