“ Dick and I shared times that were fun and poignant. Played friendly poker games and had me invited to an American Cyanamid "alumni" get together. When others always seemed to have a "serious" statements to make Dick in his way changed the "serious" statements into a lighthearted notes. He had a kind heart and quick wit.

I always appreciated both.

Your friend.

Paul Pilson.

“ Aunt Ginny, Diane and Donna, All my heartfelt sympathies to you. Uncle Dick was such a warm, caring and funny man. Laughter and smiles were always around when in the company of Uncle Dick. So many great childhood memories playing around the house when we were so young. Just know that Aunt Betty is there welcoming him with a big hug and smiling down on us. Uncle Ralph sends his love to you and has so many fond memories of their apartment life after they were all first married. We send our hugs and will forever keep his memory in our hearts. With deepest sympathies, Lauren
