

Robert (Bobby) Beja

October 15, 1932 - December 1, 2007

Bobby was born and lived in Yonkers, New York. He was a member of the United States Air Force and served his country overseas for three years. He moved to Tinton Falls upon his retirement as a carpenter where he enjoyed his golden years going to the beach and Bingo with his wife and life-time companion Josephine who he was married to for 54 years.

Surviving is his wife, Josephine, his two sons Anthony Beja and his wife Patti of Jackson, New Jersey; Joseph Beja and his wife Christina of Yonkers, New York; his two daughters Caren Perrone and her husband John of Eatontown, New Jersey; Mary Silva and her husband Paul of Ossining, New York and his seven grandchildren, Johnny, Nicky, Christina, Chiarra, Mirianna, Dylan, Hunter and Jack.

Bobby was a family man who stressed the importance of family values and unity. He loved his grandchildren most of all and could always be seen cheering and supporting his grandchildren at one of their baseball, soccer or softball games.
