

Ruth Violet Nicholson

May 18, 1939 - March 15, 2021

Ruth V. Nicholson, 81, of Tinton Falls, New Jersey, lost her battle with cancer and peacefully passed away at home surrounded by her family.

Born May 18th, 1939 in Long Branch, NJ; Ruth is the daughter of Ralph and Leola Lewis who resided in Red Bank, NJ with her 14 brothers and sisters. Ruth attended Red Bank Regional High School where she participated in many sports and clubs before graduating and attending Technical School to become a Key Punch Operator for the Department of Defense U.S. Army, CECOM in Tinton Falls, NJ. In July of 1968 she married Timothy Nicholson and shortly thereafter moved to Tinton Falls to raise their only child Derek Nicholson. Ruth attended St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Red Bank and enjoyed many social activities on the NJ shore, none more than Atlantic City.

Ruth is preceded by her husband Timothy Nicholson; she leaves behind her son Derek Nicholson, his wife Nikole and their five children, Zachariah, Sian, Anthony, Yasmyna, and Tahmyyr; several Brothers & Sisters, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Close Life-long Friends.

Mom you loved feeding the ducks with me, going to the Auction every Saturday, cooking the best Bar-b-que with Dad, you both are back together again at peace and I'm thankful for all you both did for me and your Grandchildren...I Love you both very much.

A private ceremony will be held at Monmouth Memorial Park, Tinton Falls, NJ.
