

Ruth T Nisay

February 12, 1966 - September 29, 2024

Ruth Nisay was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She passed away surrounded by her loved ones on September 29, 2024, at age 58. She was born to Vicente and Monena Tiangson on February 12, 1966. She grew up in the Philippines with her brothers: Rene, Roberto, and predeceased Raul. With her parents and siblings, she loved spending time at the beach and cooking with her cousin. She moved to America in 1978 and met the love of her life and beloved husband, Conrado in 1986. They spent endless nights having fun in Atlantic City, watching their favorite movies at the theater, and spending their winter breaks in the Poconos every year. They married on July 25, 1987, and built their life in Lincroft, New Jersey. They continued their life together as loving parents and had three children: Ashley, Conrad, and Allyson. Ruth worked as an insurance claims specialist for Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield for 37 years. She enjoyed traveling and trying new cuisines around the world. Her most memorable vacations were the family trip around

Europe to celebrate her and Conrado's 27th anniversary and to the Philippines where she was able to show her favorite places growing up. Ruth always had the best fashion sense. You could always find her shopping for a brand-new dress and shoes that somehow managed to make her even more beautiful than she already was. Ruth especially loved spending time with her family. She welcomed Jeramey, Jenny, and Freddie with open arms as her own children. She found a new sense of love in her role as "momshie" caring for her grandchildren: Kalani, Charlotte, and Cameron. She made sure to spend as much time as possible watching her grandchildren grow up, whether it meant traveling across the country to Hawai'i or a road trip away to Virginia. She was there for each and every milestone for her husband, children, and grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Asia America Initiative. The AAI helps provide nutrition, art supplies, storybooks, and toys to instill positive attitudes, love, and care for children in the Philippines battling cancer.

“ YA as we fondly call each other is a very generous, fun loving person... every time she comes home to the Philippines there is always something (pasalubong) for everyone...so selfless...YA you will be sorely missed but the thought that there will be no more pain brings consolation to the pain of grieving that I felt.... GODSPEED YA! always always, love you very much!

“ My Dear Ruth. You will be missed so much! Our team will never be the same without you. So many memories shared to treasure. I always looked forward to your visits at the office. You always put a smile in my face and you were always the life of the party during our team meetings and social gatherings sharing your funny stories and making everyone happy. I also truly enjoyed the delicious Filipino dishes that you kindly shared with us. You were not only a great dedicated, hard working, smart and highly reliable colleague with whom we had the honor to collaborate with through these years. But, I also feel honored to have shared your friendship. You were a very kind, compassionate and amazing friend. One of my fondest memories of you was our trip to NY city some years ago to see the Pope. You made the occasion very special and unforgettable! You will always be close in my heart. Rest in peace my friend. Until we meet again.

“ Inday Ruth, as we call her was a very loving, caring, helping and accomodating cousin. Full of fun and energy. Fun to be with. As the saying goes, " never a dull moment " with her. I remembered missing my international flight back home and I was stranded in Newark International Airport, she and Conrad pick me up at 1 in the morning even with my protest not to pick me up. Another fun memories with you was when we drove with my family from Jersey all the way to Cape Breton Island Nova Scotia, that was a lot of fun. You had helped me tremendously, how can I ever repay you and Conrad. Inday Ruth, I will surely miss you.

Till we meet again.

May your beautiful soul rest in eternal peace 🙏🙏🙏

Love ,

Kookie and family
