“ My family lived on Clinton Avenue. I would walk my children to school and see Ruth and Stan in the morning having coffee on the porch. We would wave to each other. When my children got older and I let them walk to and from school on their own, Ruth and Stan would watch out for them. That was comforting to me, and I truly appreciated it. They would stop by on Friday nights to bring us bagels. They were a lovely couple. They will be missed by many.
