

Salomea Paczkowski

August 19, 1944 - March 3, 2024

Salomea Paczkowski, 79, of Tinton Falls, formerly of Brick Twp., passed away on Sunday March 3, 2024, at home. She was born and raised in Newark, NJ and has been a resident of the shore area since 1999, settling in Brick Township for 15 years before moving to Tinton Falls. Salomea worked as a Bookkeeper/Accountant for Donna Degman Women's clothing, New York for 10 years. She was a devout parishioner of St. Martha's Roman Catholic Church in Point Pleasant.

Salomea deeply enjoyed making traditional Polish meals, and Christmas holidays surrounded by her family were by far her favorite. She loved to visit her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who lived out of state. Traveling to Vermont and New Hampshire always brought her joy.

Salomea was predeceased by her husband John Paczkowski; and her parents Edward and Mary Brach. She is survived by her son John Paczkowski; her son Paul Paczkowski and his wife Janette; her granddaughter Isabelle Paczkowski; her granddaughter Josephine Paczkowski-Smith and her husband Michael; her grandchildren Maddie and Jayce; and her brother Louis Brach.

Salomea's visitation will be 6-9 PM on Tuesday March 5 at Bongarzone Funeral Home, Tinton Falls, NJ. Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 11 AM on Wednesday March 6 at St. Martha's RC Church, Point Pleasant, NJ. Interment will follow at St. Anne's Cemetery, Wall, NJ. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society at donate.cancer.org. There is no viewing at funeral Home on Wednesday, family has requested everyone to go directly to church.

“ May God's healing, grace and love see you through this difficult time. Rich & I knew "Sally" through her dearest friend & my cousin-Lorraine Sojka. Sally loved getting together for everyone's birthdays & we were always happy when she could join the "gang". She always had an upbeat attitude that was fun to be around.
