

Shirley A. Hughes

August 23, 1942 - November 25, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Shirley Ann Hughes, a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, who was the cornerstone and matriarch of her family.

Shirley dedicated 30 years of service to Fort Monmouth, where she was admired for her commitment and work ethic. In her retirement, she relished the simple joys of life, spending precious time with her family, playing games, and hosting gatherings that brought loved ones together.

Her family was everything to her, and we were so lucky to have her. Shirley's presence was a blessing to all who knew her, and her warmth, humor, and strength will forever be cherished. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of love and family will live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to be part of her life.

“ My hearts aches knowing this beautiful soul passed away. My condolences to her entire family. I met her because my nephew was dating her granddaughter, Angel, at the time. I attended one of the parties she had there. I have many great memories with her family. Her life will live though all of her family memories !! Paula and Clint Leming
