“ Steve, My dear friend since 8th grade, I'll miss you, all the intelligent conversations, the music, you never compromising on values, you correcting my spelling... The journey through childhood to adulthood always involved you in it. I'll miss you very much and I can only hope my young son grows to have a friend like you. It's also nice to read those from your work, I know how much you enjoyed what you did and I can only imagine how well you did it. You used to catch 25 cent errors in the cashier tills when we were 17 working in the supermarket. We miss you and are thankful you touched of our lives. I wish you peace.
