“ I first met Val when I was still a kid, and she and Walt moved to Stonehaven in New Shrewsbury, up by the Navy road. My father was on the New Shrewsbury First Aid Squad, the Tinton Falls Board of Education, and knew of Walt from Penney’s. My mother was a member of the First Aid Squad Ladies Auxiliary, volunteered in the Tinton Falls school library, was secretary of the fair board, and was director of the Tinton Falls Library and she knew Val well. Walt and Val attended my parent’s Tree Trimming party just before Christmas for years. I remember playing with the weimaraners when we would go to their house. I hadn’t seen her since 1985 when she answered a 911 call at my home, but I thought of her often. Val emanated a loving light that drew people to her and left everyone feeling better for knowing her. Truly a great lady. May she rest in Peace.
