

Victor C. Perotti Jr.

May 22, 1921 - February 8, 2009

Victor C. Perotti, Jr., a lifelong resident of Sea Bright, died Sunday, February 8, 2009 at Riverview Medical Center. Vic was the owner of Victor C. Perotti & Son, Inc., Electrical Contractor, retiring in 1982. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, in the Pacific Campaign, for 3 ½ years. Victor was a member of the Sea Bright United Methodist Church and the Sea Bright Seniors. He was a member of the Sea Bright Board of Education for 20 years, served as President; founding member of the Shore Regional Board of Education for 15 years, served as President; member and Vice-Chairman of the Sea Bright Zoning Board of Adjustment; and member of Sea Bright First Aid Squad. He was the oldest living member of the Sea Bright Fire Department, and fondly known to all as “Mr. Sea Bright.”

His parents, Grace Carlson and Victor C. Perotti, his wife, Winifred Reilly Perotti and his wife Ruth Harder Perotti, predeceased Victor. Surviving are his cousins: Lillian & George Lockwood, Oceanport; Margit & Henry Gregerson, Monmouth Beach; Jean & Ray Smith, Rumson; Roberta & Vincent Fiore, Ocean; Patricia & Frank Slover, Whiting; Joan & Charles Phearsdorf, Allegany, NY; his nephews, Laurence & Sheila Reilly, Mt. Sinai, NY; John & Helen Lunde, Washington, NJ, and his beloved and faithful companion “Candy.”

Previous Events

Service

FEB 14. 11:30 AM (ET)

Sea Bright United Methodist Church
1104 Ocean Avenue
Sea Bright, NJ

Tribute Wall

“ Our deepest sympathy for your loss. Vic was always such a part of everybody's life and he will certainly be missed.
Marianne Cermak and Family##imported-begin##The Cermak Family##imported-end##

February 13, 2009 at 10:40 AM