“ Wilmer will always be remembered for his kindness and compassion to others. He always made sure that his family is safe and protected . He is a very simple guy, takes his family to Great Adventure every summer , takes trips to the flea market on weekends, and sing karaoke with his family. He is a jack of all trades and will always do things for his siblings, children, aunts, nieces ,nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins without asking for anything in return. He fought till the end for his wife and kids. He wanted to go back to work despite his illness to provide for his family but unfortunately he was not able to since March of 2024. Rest In Peace Mer💕

“ I remember Wilmer as a fun person and very loving to his family. He made the Pavao wedding a night everyone will remember, by being himself and keeping everyone laughing and having a great time! He was always nice to everyone, and made them feel comfortable around his family. He will be missed greatly.
